Join 1000+ patients who have shared their stories online at daVinciStories.com!

Dear da Vinci Surgery Patient:

As someone who chose da Vinci Surgery, you carefully researched your treatment options and ultimately picked the one that was right for you. At daVinciStories.com, you now have an opportunity to tell your story and educate prospective patients on their treatment options.

daVinciStories.com is a collection of first-hand accounts from patients like you who chose da Vinci Surgery. The site provides an opportunity to share your experience in your own words.

Want to participate?

- Submit your story and optional photo at www.daVinciStories.com by filling out the online form. To ensure that others may fully understand your process and outcome, we ask that your story be a minimum of 250 words.
- You may opt in to allow prospective patients to write to you via a contact form. Your email address will only be shared if you choose to reply.
- You can choose to exclude your last name from the published version of your story.
- Submissions are reviewed to ensure that content and referenced treatments are appropriate and relevant.
- Your story will be published on the site within 4-6 weeks.
- References to doctors and/or hospitals may be featured on that doctor or hospital's profile on da Vinci Surgery sites.

Thank you in advance for helping others learn more about minimally invasive da Vinci Surgery. We look forward to hearing about your journey!
